BEHAN BEATS RUBBERNECK.

Fine weather overhead, a fast track, which was made a trifle slow by a strong wind blowing down the straight, and a large crowd were the features at Lakeside yesterday. The racing was good, though only two favorites, Cora Havill in the first, and Dick Behan in the fourth were successful. The clever midget Hothersall rode three winners.

In the opening event, Cora Havill went to the front directly after the start, and staying there to the end, won handily from Mr. Dunlap.

Yours Truly was the favorite for the two-year-old race, but the weight was too much for him. Snag made the running and looked like a winner in the stretch, but Harry Gwyne collared him at the sixteenth pole and just beat him home. Miss Chambers ran an improved race. Nikita was most fancied for the mile, but Toots was well played. Toots led most of the way and won a good race by a head. Nikita was interfered with by Starbeam at the three-quarters turn and had to almost pull up. She came very fast at the finish.

Though there were some fast ones in the three-quarter mile handicap, Dick Behan was made favorite. Rubberneck made the running into the stretch, when Dick Behan came up and won handily. Helen Wren got second place in a hard drive. Warren rode Weola very badly, and John Brenock has dispensed with his service.

May Fern and Overella were the most fancied in the fifth event, but old Glenoid, who is very fit just now, beat her out. Warren again riding poorly on May Fern.

In the last race there was a plunge on Meddler with Overton up. He acted badly at the post, but got off well, and led till the head of the stand where he weakened, and Excuse coming on won with something to spare from Mary L.

Tully Coulter has sold to Mr. Bauman of the Suburban Stable the 2-year-year-old colt The Galley Slave, by Cavalier—Linnnet, price $800, and the 3-year-old filly Aunt Sallie, by Bramble—Sallie Harper, to J. W. Hawhie who used to be connected with the trotters, for $250.

DECORATION HANDICAP.

There are sixty-four nominations for the Decoration day handicap to be run at Lakeside next Saturday. The purse is $1,500, and the distance one and one-quarter miles. Declarations are to be made Friday. Winners after publication of weights will have to carry five pounds over the assigned figures, which follow:

AFTER THE SLUGGING SLOANS.

The victim of the cowardly assault by the Sloans at Lakeside Monday is in bed. The case is to be officially looked into at once. When Cross is able to get out the legal test will be taken. Application has also been made to the License Committee of the American Turf Congress for the revocation of any license that either of the Sloans may have. The case will be pushed to the limit at all its corners.

BROOKLYN AND SUBURBAN.

The news from Toronto where the Seagram Stable is racing says that Saragossa will not do and is not likely to be sent to New York for the Brooklyn. Walter Hobart has declared Bright Phoebus from both Brooklyn and Suburban.

The present possibilities for the Brooklyn—to which there were 32 entries—are thus officially reduced by six: Senator Grady, Saragossa, Bright Phoebus, Vincter, King Arthur II, and Primrose. Halma too is not sure to go. The Foster pair, Eloroy and Dr. Rice can also be passed up. This reduces Brooklyn possibilities to 21.

To the Suburban there was 27 original entries. These six are officially out: Domino, Bright Phoebus, Stowaway, Vincter, King Arthur II and Claudius. To them may be added five more, Dr. Rice, Eloroy, Halma, Senator Grady and Saragossa. This leaves but sixteen probabilities.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Sobranite, a Californian sire of shady quality by Kyrle Daly—Carrie C, died last week at Lathrop, Cal.

The ex-expert Garrison, on the heels of a declaration that he can "do" 117 pounds, isn't riding for Eastern owners.
